LIFE

Life should be a little song
Drifting down the day.
With a blessing for the throng
On the human way.
Life should be a little prayer—
Falling on the dusk,
Filling the enfranchised air
With the scent of musk.

Life should be a little dream
Calling from afar
Where the lifted heavens gleam
In an opening star.

And now Dr. Wiley says Americans don't know how to cook.
Bet he doesn't dare to say it up at our house
